Learning Management System (L.M.S.)

A software application or web-based technology used to plan, implement and assess a specific learning process providing instructors with a means to create, organize, and deliver content and assessments. Blackboard is the L.M.S. that is used at the University of Detroit Mercy.

Photo courtesy of Agefis on Unsplash.