

Student Engagement

A broad term that suggests students' interest, curiosity, and passion for the activities in a course. Engagement can foster positive feeling about a course that helps students remain active both inside and outside of the course.

Photo courtesy of Pexels.