

Support Your Career via the National Center for Faculty Development & Diversity (NCFDD)

The National Center for Faculty Development & Diversity is a leading provider of professional development for faculty. University of Detroit Mercy faculty and instructors have access to the services that NCFDD provides via an institutional membership.

Working with over 250 member colleges and universities NCFDD supports faculty members, postdocs, and graduate students in making successful transitions throughout their careers. The organization provides workshops, focused boot camps, webinars and other services relating to many topics relating to faculty growth and the art of teaching.

Photo courtesy of Pixabay from Pexels.

NCFDD provides on-demand access to the mentoring, tools, and support needed to be successful in the Academy, focusing on four key areas including:

Support Your Career via the National Center for Faculty Development & Diversity (NCFDD)

- productivity
- strategic planning
- building healthy relationships
- work-life balance

Interested faculty can explore the services and benefits of being an NCFDD member at:

<https://www.facultydiversity.org/>.

Questions about the membership can be directed to the Office of Academic Affairs at academicaffairs@udmercy.edu.

To activate your Detroit Mercy Sponsored Membership

Visit facultydiversity.org. On the landing page, click “Activate My Membership.” Complete the registration form using your Detroit Mercy email address and click the activation link in the confirmation email once you receive it.